Some initial thoughts

• Energy and GHG emissions for goods-moving vehicles projected to rise faster than that of passenger moving vehicles
• Goods-moving vehicles have not been subject to energy/efficiency/GHG standards
• Standard setting is just getting started
• Freight is more complex than light-duty where standards have become increasingly more complex